

Professional Development Opportunity

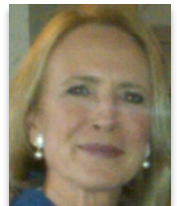

Grand Canyon State IPMA-HR is hosting a virtual professional development opportunity. The Zoom virtual meeting platform will be used. Register at gcsipmahr.org. (Zoom meeting information will be included in the registration response email.)

Date: October 15, 2020 @ 11:00 AM

Topic: Critical Leadership Attributes for the Workplace, Post COVID-19

Presenters: Deb Carr, Jorgensen/Brooks Group

Deb will discuss what organizations can do at this critical moment to keep work going - and importantly, to care for and guide their people at a time of tremendous stress. Let's examine the issue from the point of view of both leaders and employees.

BIO

Deborah Carr, RN, MS, LISAC, CEAP
EAP Director

National EAP Director for Jorgensen/Brooks Group, Ms. Carr is a registered nurse (1973) and holds a Masters degree from Lesley College in Cambridge, MA. She has served as President of the Occupational Professional Consultants Association and an international speaker on employee assistance. Ms. Carr offers three decades of professional EAP experience, including development and operation of the first private EAP consortium established on the island of Bermuda. Ms. Carr also provides consultation and training in leadership development, conflict resolution and effective supervision.

Save the Dates:

December 17, 2020

February 18, 2021

April 15, 2021